

A Folio Future...are you ready?

- 1: Recognize preferred methods of portfolio design and visual communication are changing as the interior design industry e-evolves
- 2: Prepare for professionals who are exercising the “digital screen” when initially introduced to your work or when preparing for a virtual interview
- 3: Prepare for the future. The digital design portfolio or a combination of traditional/digital will become more of a standard; particularly during career networking events and in-person interviews
- 4: Utilize professional social networks appropriately to connect with industry and showcase your work
- 5: Always keep the reviewer, firm/organization and their culture in mind when selecting a portfolio presentation platform
